Support Websites

- Cancer's Margins

<https://www.lgbtcancer.ca/>

The Cancer's Margins research team uses a community and arts based approach to exploring sexual and gender diversity, and experiences of cancer health, support and care. They look at how LGBTQ2 people locate and share knowledge after they've been diagnosed and treated for breast or gynecologic cancer.

- National LGBT Cancer Project

<https://lgbtcancer.org/>

The LGBT Cancer Project is dedicated to improving the lives of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transsexual people diagnosed with cancer. They have done this through increasing awareness of LGBT cancer issues, developing an LGBT cancer survivor community, developing research on treatment and psychosocial needs.
